

WAKEFIELD'S CATCHER, Ken Darling, is helping to Coach the Mann's Potato Chip sandlot team this year. It's good to see young men getting into this kind of hobby. There can never be too many men interested in helping boys grow into useful citizens.

THREE WAKEFIELD BASEBALL managers last year came out for the Junior Varsity squad this spring and so far the youngsters are still on Maynard Haithcock's club. Gene Bergoffen, Don Deuterman and Ralph Compton are all playing with the Little Warriors.

INSTEAD OF last year's six managers for one team, Wakefield has only two, Paul Chasey and Roger Hamilton, to work with both the Jayvee and Varsity.
